

Train Reservation Management

1. Introduction

1.1 Purpose : The purpose of the train management system is to provide a platform to the passengers to book the train seats

1.2 Scope: The System allows users to search the trains from source to destination and book the seat for the appropriate train

1.3 Definition,Abbreviation,Acronyms:

- DB= Data base
- UI=User Interface
- SRS=Software Requirement Specification

2. Overall Description

2.1 Product Perspective:Train Reservation system management is a web-based application which allows users to book their seat online to travel from source to destination.

2.2 Product Features: System has the features to see the trains which moves from their city to their destination,Book the seat,pay online and track the train's movement.

2.3 Constraints:

- 24*7 Network connection
- Database is required

3.External Requirements

3.1 Hardware Requirement

Laptop/phone

3.2 Software Requirements

Website/application

3.3 User Requirments

should have the knowledge of understanding and reading

4.Functional Requirement

- The System should allow users to book the seat
- allow users to see the types of classes
- Allow to track the seat
- Allow to cancel the ticket

5.Non-Functional Requirement

- Reliability
- Scalability
- Security
- Performance
-

6.Other Requirement

- Database Recovery Backup
- Customer support Helpline Number